Kaiser's Bria :- to-Be est at Castle of Count Bentinck

Former Crown Prince Arrives at Doorn for Wedding on Sunday.

AMERONGEN, Holland, Nov. 2 (Assoc ited Press).-The impending arrival here of Princess Hermine of Reuss, -to-be of former Emperor William count Goddard Bentinck's castle. Count Goddard Bentinck's castle.

The Count no longer resides in the castle, having gone to Switzerland in a huff after a quarrel with the local authorities over taxation. The president-resident, who will act as hostess, is Count Bentinck's daughter, Elizabeth, who in 1920 married Capt. Sigurd von lisemann of William's entourage.

The correspondent of the Associated Press was not challenged to-day when he crossed the bridge over the moat

Press was not challenged to-day when he crossed the bridge over the moat leading to the castle. The only person in sight was a gardener, who was engaged in tidying the lawn. All efforts to interview the residents were vain, questions eliciting a cold but polite message of regret that those inside would be unable to see a newspaper correspondent dent.

few hours later a large motor loaded with trunks and hat boxes.

d the castle gates and it was ded that Hermine would spend the DOORN, Holland, Nov. 2 (Associated Doorn, Holland, Nov. 2 (Associated Press).—Former Crown Prince Frederick-William arrived in Doorn to-day for the wedding on Sunday. He brought with him a truck full of baggage, presumably containing uniforms for the various functions. He slipped into the castle through a small garden gate.

Measures: maintaining secrecy are increasing. The park is being patrolled by men assigned to this duty from the household staff, the patrols being accompanied by fierce mastiffs.

MR. AND MRS. ASTOR ON THE MAURETANIA

Grandson of Karl Marx Also

Grandson of Karl Marx Also Among Passengers.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor are passengers on board the Mauretania of the Cunard Line, due to-day, Mr. Astor went abroad early last month to visit his mother, Lady Ribblesdale, in London and then Join Mrs. Astor in Parist. Their house at 86 Fifth avenue is being made ready for them.

Another passenger is Jean Louget of Parist, and Mrs. W. J. Staats, Colin Esting made ready for them.

Others on board the steamship are Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Staats, Colin Estopoper, Charles H. Post, Arthur Shattuck, Lord Glentanar, Mrs. David Dows, Prof. A. De Ferraris, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Morgan.

The America of the United States Lines also is due to-day. Among the passengers are Miss Lillian Rappold, daughter of Mine. Rappold, dau

TO PLAN MANHATTAN'S 300TH ANNIVERSARY

Woman's Association Invites Delegates to Meeting.

The American Woman's Association has invited numerous organizations to send delegates to a meeting to arrange for the celebration next year of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the consolidation of the three borougha and the three hundreth anniversay of the sectling of Manhattan Island. Miss Gertrude Robinson Smith, in making the announcement, invited delegates interested to use the association's head-quarters, 231 Madison avenue.

Miss Smith suggests that a congress

Miss Smith suggests that a congress

MANY RIDE AT HOT SPRINGS .. Driving and Golfing Also Popular

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Special Dispatch to The New York Herain-Hot Springs, Va., Nov. 2.—Riding and driving to-day were Mr. and Mrs. Cort-landt W. Handy, Mrs. Henry Martyn Alexander, Miss Grace Bristed and Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Budd. Mrs. George A. Ellis, Jr., and Mrs. Joseph Truit Talbert of New York drove to Gillette's to remain overnight and re-turn to-morrow by way of Back Creek, stopping at Fassifern for luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cole baye arrived.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cole have arrived at the Homestead from New York. Mrs. William Jay of New York and Mrs. Frederic Nellson of Newport were on the Casino terrace this afternoon dur-

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Mrs. Elihu Root, Jr., is at the Plaza. Mr. Percy R. Pyne 2d has closed his ouse in Roslyn, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould will return next week from Ardsley on Hudson, Mrs. William Watts Sherman has re-

Mrs. Samuel H. Valentine has re-turned from her country home to 5 East Sixty-seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hone Auerbach of Hewlett, L. I., and Mrs. William H.

Sage of Albany are at the St. Regis. Mr. and Mrs. William Church Osborn will return from Garrison, N. Y., im-mediately after election day. Mr. and Mrs. Paulding Fosdick gave a dinner last night at Pierre's for Prince and Princess Miguel de Braganza,

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Whiton Stuart, in from Good Hope, their place at Green-wich, are at the Lorraine.

Mrs. Van Wagenen Terry had for luncheon yesterday at the Ritz-Carlton Mrs. Griswold A. Thompson, Mrs. Will-iam J. Sturgis and Miss Mary Brown Washington

Mr. and Mrs. T. Suffern Taller gave

Lady Alan Johnstone, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss, has left Washington for New

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., have returned to Washington and are superintending the finishing of their new house on Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. Edward M. McIlvain.

HARDING ON ART COMMITTEE.

hearty welcome by the Committee on his Custody of the two children, Halle, work in cementing the friendship belier.

Custody of the two children, Halle, work in cementing the friendship belier.

Mr. Van Rensselaer to Marry Daughter of Waldron K. Post

Engagement of Miss Elizabeth W. Post Announced at Hallowe'en Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldron Kintzing Post of Bayport, L. I., and 890 Park avenue nnounced at a Hallowe'en party given their daughter Miss Elizabeth W. Pos to Mr. Killaen M. Van Rensselaer. The engagement is one of wide interest. Miss Post is a granddaughter of the late A. Kintzing Post and of the presgranddaughter of Gen. Regis de Tro briand, who, although a Frenchman fought in the Northern Army in the a granddaughter of the late Mr. and ame. Domicio da Gama, wife of the Brazilian Ambassador to the Court of St. James, is now at the Ambassador Hotel.

Mrs. Charles Perkins and a niece of Mr. Robert P. Perkins. She also is a niece of Mrs. Hamilton Fish Webster of Newport. She was introduced two ways are Hotel.

Miss Anne Morgan expects to return from France about the middle of this:

Miss Anne Morgan expects to return from France about the middle of this:

Mr. Van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer of the original Kiliaen Van Rensselaer of that historical family, who was among the early settlers in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. Eulis J. Francke and Miss Ada Francke, who recently returned from Europe, have taken an apartment at 931 Park avenue.

Mr. Van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer of that historical family, who was among the early settlers in Albany. Mr. Van Rensselaer was graduated from St. Wallen van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Maunseil van Rensselaer is a Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. BENNINGTON, Vt., Nov. 2.—Miss Eleanor Harriet Sibley, daughter of Mrs. E. Livingston Sibley, and the Rev. Lester Leake Riley, rector of St. Peter's a small luncheon party at the Plaza yesterday for Mrs. Taller's mother and went, Mrs. Alexander Brown of Baltimore and Mrs. William L. James.

Lester Leake Riley, rector of St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., were married this noon at St. Peter's Church, Benmington, by the Rev. J. Elmer Makee. Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Stettinius will give a reception the afternoon of December 6 at 1921 Park avenue to introduce their second daughter. Miss letty Stettinius, for whom they will give a dance the night of December 27 in the Plaza.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d will give a dance on Thanksgiving Eve at give at give a dance on Thanksgiving Eve at give at give a dance on Thanksgiving Eve at give at ward McVickar and Mrs. Charles de in salvaging the American de Cartier to help that vocational school for disabled veterans. Starting Monday and continuing until Armistice Day they will remain in New York for a time.

The Belgian Minister, Baron de Cartier de Marchienne, has returned to the Embassy. Baroness de Cartier will remain in New York for a time.

The British Ambassador and Lady Geddes have returned to Washington from a visit to the Governor-General of Canada and Lady Byng at Ottawa.

Mrs. Henry Wider Keyes, wife of Senator Keyes, entertained at tea yesterday for her guest, Mrs. Noble Foes, daughter-in-law of former Governor Foss of Massachusetts.

Former Counselor of the Japanese Embassy Mr. Tokichi Tanaka arrived in Washington last evening from New York and is at the Shoreham, He is completing a tour of the world.

Lady Alan Johnstone, who has been detailed to Sherry's and the Misses Cornella Robb and E. Clarisee de Rham to Pierre's. The field for Mrs. Harry Curtis and Miss Cosmo Hamilton will be the Plaza Theater.

Among Passengers Leaving England on the Homeric. Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALL Copyright, 1922, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Mrs. Edward M. McIlvain.

Wakefield Hopes English History May Be Revised Here.

Wakefield Hopes English History May Be Revised Here.

Special Cable to The New York Heralds.

Special Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle Schaff
ner Schlesinger obtained a decree of Copyright. 1922, by The New York Heralds.

New York Herald Rurean.)

London, Nev. 2.

Sir Charles Wakefield on his return hearty welcome by the Common Countain the From the United States received a hearty welcome by the Common Countain the France of the New York Heralds.

Custody of the two children, Halle, Schaff oursel for the United States Shipping they were married in October, 1911, and that her husband deserted her in September, 1920.

Custody of the two children, Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHANGE NAVAL JUDGES

CHANGE NAVAL JUDGES

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHANGE NAVAL JUDGES

CHANGE NAVAL JUDGES

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHANGE NAVAL JUDGES

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff
oursel Dispatch to The New York Heralds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Halle, Schaff-

Miss Abby Rockefeller a Debutante

Miss Rockefeller will be introduced to society by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., at an evening musicale in their home, to West Fifty-fourth street, on November 22. The picture of the debutante is from a drawing by John Singer Sargent.

MAJOR SOURWINE, SURVIVING BANDITS' ATTACK, IS ENGAGED

American Army Officer Attacked in Train at Frankfort, Is to Wed Daughter of Countess d'Ongran de St. Sauveur.

COUNTESS DES GARETS

York Injured Abroad.

Copuright, 1922, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Countess Jacques des Garets, formerly

New York Herald Burean, 1 Paris, Nov. 2.

Special Cable to The New York Hemalo.
Copyright, 1922, by The New York Hemalo.
New York Herald Bureau.)
Paris, Nov. 2.5
A romance that nearly reached a climax in tragedy when Major James A.
Sourwine was robbed and left half dead in a first class compartment of the Amsterdam-Basic express in Frankfort last Saturday night was revealed in the announcement to-day of mis engagement to Mile. Victoria, daughter of Countess d'Ongran de St. Sauveur, a member of one of the oldest Prench families.
Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented the Department of Agriculture

Major Sourwine, who since demobilization of the American forces has represented to College when he was attacked at midnight by train banding they train band resented the Department of Agriculture and American authorities are offering in salvaging the American army sup-rewards.

RECEIVE $2,000,000

Gifts to Presbyterian Hospital Former Miss Dater of New and Columbia Increased.

Several cifts which will add materially to the fund being collected for the new pital and Columbia University were announced yesterday by the joint adminis-trative board of the two institutions.

Mrs. Harry Grennell, who was Miss Annie Josephine Dater of New York, will

The actual transfer of the land to be used for the construction of the hospital and the scientific and research laboratories of Columbia University also has been effected. The site, which is donated by Mrs. Stephen V. Harkness and nated by Mrs. Stephen V. Harkness and S Edward S. Harkness, her son, comprises breaking her arm and shoulder. She twenty acres extending between 165th a now in the Hotel Vendome with her and 168th streets from Broadway to the York.

Miss Smith suggests that a congress of business women be made a feature of the celebration, which might also include a ristoric pageant; exhibits representing all forms of development in commerce, industry, science and art, and military, civic, social, educational, religious and philanthropic organizations. There might also be exhibits showing the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the progress made by women in the business world, she said.

Among the passengers who sailed on the steamship Homeric to-day are Mrs. Ceell Bark and her daughters, Commodore Bartlett, Mrs. George Bartley, the Misses night for Mr. M. D. Peterson, Secretary of the Embassy, who has been detached and will sail for England next week.

Mrs. Stephen B, Elkins has returned from leave week.

Mrs. Stephen B, Elkins has returned from the school of medicine and the detached and will sail for England next week.

Mrs. Stephen B, Elkins has returned from the school of medicine and the donor, Mrs. S. V. bold Edgar, Judge Orr. Charles M. Hough, J. M. Hoyte and family, Miss dowment of the school of medicine and the daughters, Commodore Bartlett, Mrs. George Bartley, the Misses street, N. Hough, N. Hoyte and family, Miss dowment of the chool of Hudson River and is valued at $4,000,000.

It. The animal attacked him, but was killed by Bert Vors, another member of the hunting party.

The Lenox Hill Players have leased the Lenox Theater at 52 East Seventy-eighth street and will open their second season Monday evening with three plays new here. The Parden, from the French of Jules Le Maltre, is the most important play. The others are "The Green Scart," by Kenneth Sawyer Goodman, and "The Other Voice," by S. K. Fairbanks. The season will continue for eix months, a change of bill being made fortnightly. Guest stars will appear frequently with the permanant of the first class of the Naval Academy, who went to trial to-day on a charge of hazing, objected through Major Henry Leonard, United States Marine Corps (retired), an autorney of Washington, D. C., to the continuance of every member of the court-martial. Cameron, May Nov. 2.—Two MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Nov. 2.—Former Services and Services of the Navy Daniels, who spoke last night at a Democratic raily Japan's army appropriation for the combere, visited Wesleyan University to tag year shows a decrease of only day as the guest of Stephen T. Olin, second been, but authorities predict that acting president. He shock hands with after this period the annual excrease many of the faculty and student body, will be at least 30,000,000 yen.

JAPAN REDUCES ARMY BILL.

ROHERT F. ANDREWS.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 2.—Robert F. Annual Catherine Heitlah grands in the Cleveland district and actor. Function at home of granden ents, Mr. and ways in the Cleveland district and actor. Function ways in the Cleveland distr

Chicago, Nov. 2 (Associated Press). —One of the features of the thirty-fifth annual exhibition of American paintings and sculpture which opened this afternoon at the Chicago Art Institute is three wood carvings by John L. Clark, a deaf and dumb Indian living in Glacier National Park. Clark, it is said, was discovered by Louis Hill, son of the railroad builder, carving a the railroad builder, carving a

Sargent Portrait

Gets Palmer Prize

at Chicago Exhibit

One of Art Show's Features Is

Deaf and Dumb Indian's

Wood Carvings.

of the railroad builder, carving a grizzly hear out of wood.
His three pieces in this year's exhibition include a mother bear and cub leaning against a tree, the cub nestled in the mother's arms, a puma on the stalk and a puma grizzly fighting.

The prizes, winners of which were announced last night, were formally awarded to-day. A decorative subject, a still life group by Frank W. Benson of Salem, Mass., won the coveted Frank G Logan gold medal and $1,500 prize.

The selection by the jury of the still G Logan gold medal and $1,500 prize.

The selection by the jury of the still life group for the highest award was made from 340 pictures and pieces of sculpture admitted from the more than 900 nominations. Mr. Benson's composition, a round table covered with a scar of mellow old gold against a background almost Cubist in design has the convenalmost Cubist in design, has the conventional bowl of fruit overshadowed by a gladiator in green bronze, and is balanced with a dash of color in the figure of a Japanese doll, flanked by a candlestick.

Loke Sixeer Saggest of Boston many Loke Wood legislative committee into two years ago.
Locawood legislative committee into
two years ago.
Locawood legislative committee into
two years ago.
Locawood legislative committee
into
to years ago.
Locawood legislative committee
to years ago.
Locawood legislative co

John Singer Sargent of Boston, many of whose portraits have featured past exhibitions here, won second award in point of size. His full length picture of "Mrs. Swinton" took the Potter Palmer gold medal and $1,000. "Mrs. Swinton" is a typical Sargent portrait, with silks and satins, laces and old rose, and generations of Back Bay aristocracy.

The Keith Spaulding prize of $1,000 was awarded to William Wendt of Laguna Beach, Cal., for his landscape, "I Lifted Mine Eyes Unto the Hills," "The Expulsion," by Eugene F. Savage of Ossining, N. Y., conventional version of the banishment of the first sinners from Eden, won the Norman Waite Harris silver medal and $500 prize.

"Sheep at Brook" took one of the Charles S. Peterson purchase price

Charles S. Peterson purchase price awards of $500 and will be added to the Art Institute's permanent collection. The other Peterson award went to H. Dudley Murphy of Lexington, Mass., for his portrait "Woodbury."

NEWPORT SOCIAL NOTES.

HANDRAG-Flack leather, lost on Roston-Weatchester, containing keys and impertant papers; reward. Phone New Rochelle 4500-R.

POCKETBOOK-Small, brown leather, lost between Central Park West and Columbus av., on 74th or 75th st. Liberal reward. SILVERMAN, Columbus 3081.

WRITTEN references lost; working girl: neighborbood 70, East Side; finder please return to 181 East 70th.

Underwood Laforge cottage for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons are expected at Harborview next week after a visit to Peru. South America. They will remain at Newport until Christmas, when they will go to Chester, N. H.

Mrs. William B. Caperton, wife of Rear Admiral Caperton, U. S. N., retired, and her daughter, Miss Margaret Caperton, went to New York to-day; also Mr. and Mrs. George Eustis Corcoran.

Miss Julia Worthington returned to Boston to-day.

BARPIN—Loet, platinum barpin, bowknot in design, set with diamonds and a sapphire of 2:30 and 4:30 P. M. somewhere between 5th auditable reward. Rhinelander 0321.

EAKPIN—Platinum, diamonds and sapphires lost Tuesday; reward. WALKER, Stuvesmit 2:50.

BARPIN—Coot platinum barpin, bowknot in design, set with diamonds and a sapphire of 2:30 and 4:30 P. M. somewhere between 5th auditable reward. Rhinelander 0321.

EAKPIN—Platinum, diamonds and sapphires lost Tuesday; reward. WALKER, Stuvesmit 2:50.

BARPIN—Floid pearl, lost Thursday reward. Si Riverside Drive. Phone Schuyler ward. Si Riverside Drive. Phone Schuyler of diamond. Please return, 1. AMRIEIN. (22 Ave. C. Bklyn. Liberal reward. John stream of the properties of the sign of t

BREAKS BONES IN FALL

Washington sq.
Diamond BrackLeT, lost October Sl. in vicinity of Broadway, between 40th and 48th sts., or at Kitz Theater, in West 48th sts., or Riggs Restaurant, Liberal reward. Apply room 919, Tribune Bidg., 154 Nassents Nearly Half of Total.

Temple Bowdoin, former member of J. P. Morgan & Co, and of Drexel & Co., of Philadelphia, who died December 2, 1914, left an estate valued at $1,187,708, according to an appraisal filed yesterday. Nearly half of this represented his interest in the Morgan firm. The net taxable estate here was appraised at $4,285,592.

George Temple Bowdoin, who was fifteen years old when his father died, is the principal beneficiary.

RELATIVES TO SEEK WILLS.

Surrogate James A. Foley yesterday signed orders permitting relatives to examine safe deposit boxes in search of the wills of Mrs. Lillius G. Grace, widow of former Mayor William R. Grace, who died October 24; Mrs. Florence V. C. Parsons, widow of John E. Parsons, who died in Lenox, Mass. October 15, and Lloyd Warren, an architect, who died in a fall from a window of his apartment at 1 West Sixty-fourth street. October 25.

October 25.

OBITUARIES.

Miss general color for the specific property of the color of the color

'Ancient Mariner' of Air, 62, on 3,510 Mile Flight

pecial Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD

National Aeronautic Association.

spin to Florida, breaking his jour-ney here on his return flight.

1910 from the famous British pilot Claude Grahame-White, who visited this country for the James Gordon Bennett aerial races of that year.

markable in view of the present reliability of American aircraft.

BACKER ESTATE $797.929.

Widow Has Life Interest in Builder's Fortune.

George L. Backer, one of the builders and contractors who figured prom-the widow, has a life interest in the SAIL FOR CANAL ZONE.

Col. Jay Johnson Morrow, Governo.

Armstrong, International General Elec

LOST AND FOUND.

MARRIAGES.

DIED.

N. V.
DOUK -Suddenly, on November 2, 1922,
Johanna M., in her all year, beloved sister of George H, and Fred W. Hock, Services will be hold at 2176 Enthgate
av. Saturday, November 1, *t 8 P, M.

This "ancient mariner" of the air

He took his first lessons in

New York Herald Bureau, | Washington, D. C., Nov. 2. OL. C. C. DICKINSON of Chicago, 62, who claims to be the oldest aviator in the world, left Washington to-day in his Laird-Swallow knockabout for Chicago on the last leg of a 3,510 mile tour. His claim to being the

the society.
Eleanor Van Rensselaer Fairfax,
President.
President.
President.
President.
HITCHCOCK.—Ella B., at Pleasantville,
N. Y., November 2, 1922, widow of Col.
James Roosevelt Hitchcock. Funeral pri-

HOLDENBY.—Alice S., at Englewood, N. J. on Wednesday, November I, 1922, widow of the late Richard S. Holdenby. Funcal services at the residence, 44 Liberty road, Englewood, on Saturday, November 4, at 1:30 P. M. Interment private.

HOWELL.—At Philadelphia, November I, 1922, Katherine Fearson, wisow of Henry Courtland Howell and mother of Mrs. Thomas de Quartel Richardson, Jr. Funcal service at 1802 De Lancey place, Philadelphia, Saturday, 11 A. M. Intariment private.

KANE.—At his residence, 42 West Fordham

AHM.—Entered into rest, November 1, our beloved sister member, Dr. 1da C. Nahm, life member and active worker of the Professional Woman's Letgue.

Mrs. Russel Bassett, Fres.
Georgia A. Matthlessen, Rec. Sec.
NEIL.—On November 2, at St. Luke's Hospital, Henry Maurice, beloved husband of Gertrude Stokem and brother of Dr. Edwin O'Neil, Notice of funeral later, Please omit flowers.

ERBELL.—On Wedneaday, November 1, 1922, Henry Spites Perbell, after a short liness, passed away Prospect Heights Hospital, Brooklyn, in his 48th year, Puneral services at his late residence, Later etter, L. I., or Friday evening, November 5, at S o'clock, Interment at East Hampton, L. L., at convenience of family, Kindyomit Rowers.

ONTEZ.—November 1, 1922, Elizabeth, pages.

BROOCH-Portrait surrounded by pearls; re-ward. 611 W. 114th st. DIAMANT.

CHARM BRACELET-Lost; reward. MISS MARGARET KNOTT, Hotel Holley, 36

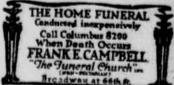

brother of the late Emil Steinberg, in his Soth year, Friends and members of Hoboken Lodge No. 74, B. P. C. E., are invited to attend services at Volk's mor-tuary chapel, 631 Washington st., Ho-boken, on Saturday, November 4, at 8 P. M.

SADLER-McGUIRE.-On November 1, 1922, at St. Nicholas's Church, 5th av. and 48th st., New York city, by the Rev. William Courtney Bars, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGuire of Alva. Sectland, to Charles Edward Sade: of London

IN MEMORIAM.

ITZ PATRICK.—In loving memory of our dearly leved son and brother, Private Pirst Class Edward Firz Patrick, Jr., sulled sa action in France, Nevember 3, 1918.

UNDERTAKERS.

John W. Lyon 69 EAST 125TH ST.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY

DIED.

BURNHAM—On November 1, 1922, Mary M. Corsa, widow of Charles Burnham. Funeral fron her late residence, 1434 Unfoneous from her late residence, 1434 Unfoneous road, Bronx, on Saturday at 2 P. M. FAIR—Suddenly on Wednesday morning, November 1, 1222, William Stephen Fair, S. Syears of age. Relatives and risend wember 5, at 7:30 P. M. at his late residence, 513 Grand st., New York city, Priman Lodge No. 325 please take notice. Interment Green-Wood Cemetery, Saturday morning.

He flew from Chicago to the Be-troit meet and then hopped off on a on-Hudson, Volumer 1. Nahm, November 1. York Central Railroad.

NAHM.—Dr. Ida C. Nahm, November 1. Funcral services Chapel of University Heights Presbyterian Church, University av. and 181st st., on Friday, 8 P. M.

NAHM.—The Stage Children's Fund announce with profound sorrow the death of our beloved first vice-president, Ida C. Nahm. M. D., on November 1, 1922. Members kindly attend services.

Mrs. Mille Thorne, President.

BOX-Liberal reward paid, and no questions asked for return of box containing one black silver embroidered cloth dress, and the blue cloth coat, one black cloth coat with vivid red dining; lost from blue Packard Readster, Tueeday, between 4:30 and 5 P. M., corner 5th av, and 51st st. Phone Great Neek 20%, Mrs. Van Vleck.

FOX FUR-Lost in Lord and Taylor telephone booth Wednesday Afternoon; wedding gift, great sentimental value; suitable reward, no questions. DEWEY, 278 W. 4th st. FURS-2 skin miln neckplese, probable 57.

VOSBURGH.—On Wednesday, November 1, 1922, Benjamin F. Vosburgh, M. D., at his bome, Berlin, Md., in his 87th year. Interment private, Trinity Cemetery, New CEMETERIES. &C.

Book of Views or Representative.